

PRINCIPIILE POLITICII EXTERNE ALE REPUBLICII TURCIA (1923-1938)

Yonca ANZERLIOĞLU

---

Abstract: The main features of Atatürk's foreign policy: realism and rationalism, mastery in tactical opening to dialogue, ability to understand the past, present and future, reliability, the trust, security, and alliance, an active foreign policy. Atatürk's Turkey policy is active, but not adventurous. It is important at regional and international cooperation. Do not forget that took an active role in the signing of agreements on disarmament of the Balkan Pact and Sadabad Pact. In addition, Turkey's successes were a example ahead for "oppressed peoples". His goal is a national independent Turkish state.

Keywords: Republic of Turkey, Atatürk, Foreign Policy of Atatürk, Treaty of Lausanne

---